8. Granting of rights to the PowerTSM® cloud service	In accordance with the following "General Terms and Conditions PowerTSM® Services" as amended from time to time, the Provider grants the Customer the rights to use the PowerTSM® Services for a client (Tenant) and the PowerTSM® Seats (Users) licensed as Named Users: https://terms.hakom.at/home/latest/powertsm-gtc
9. Licence Restrictions	In no case shall the Provider grant the Customer authorization: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>for the Technology to be used in redistributable web, mobile or desktop applications;</li> <li>for the Technology to be integrated into other software development tools;</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>to transfer or sublicense the rights to the Software to third parties, insofar and as long as the Software has access to the Technology;</li> <li>to sell the Technology to third parties.</li> </ul>
10. Duties of the Customer	The Customer undertakes to use the Technology in accordance with the applicable statutory provisions, in particular the Austrian Copyright Act [Urheberrechtsgesetz/UrhG], and to refrain from any misuse. The Customer warrants that no rights are being infringed when the Technology is used, in particular that he will refrain from any infringements of copyrights, trademark rights and other related rights, the Austrian Act on Unfair Trade Practices [Bundesgesetz gegen den unlauteren Wettbewerb/UWG], personal rights and industrial property rights. In the event of disruptions, suspected data protection breaches, suspected security-related incidents, or irregularities in data processing, the Customer is obligated to notify the provider immediately in writing. The same applies to audits of the Customer by a data protection supervisory authority. The notification must include at least the following information: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A description of the nature of the incident;</li> <li>A description of the measures taken by the Customer.</li> </ol> Notifications should be sent to the email address published on our website at https://www.hakom.at/en/legal-notice/
11. License audit	The Provider shall be entitled to audit whether the software is being used in accordance with the rights of use granted. For this purpose, the Provider may demand information from the Customer, in particular regarding the period and scope of use of the software, and may inspect the Customer's books and records, as well as the Customer's hardware and software, insofar as this provides information on the period and scope of use of the software. The Provider shall be granted access to the Customer's business premises during normal business hours after a notice period of at least 2 weeks. The Customer shall ensure to a reasonable extent that the inspection by the Provider can take place and shall cooperate in the inspection. The Provider shall use all information obtained during the audit only for the purposes of verifying the legality of the license use. The Customer may request that the on-site audit be carried out by an agent of the Provider who is bound by professional confidentiality. The costs of the audit shall be borne by the Provider, unless the audit reveals that the Customer is or has been using the software beyond the agreed scope (license shortfall). In this case, the Customer bears the costs of the audit. In the event of a license shortfall, the Customer is also obliged to pay the Provider for the missing rights at the list prices for comparable services (license rental) that are generally valid at the time of the audit for the period of the license shortfall, plus a flat-rate claim for damages of two annual premiums of the value of the license shortfall. The Provider may revoke the Customer's right of use and/or terminate the contract if the

	Customer significantly exceeds his rights of use or violates regulations for protection against unauthorized use. The Provider shall in principle grant the Customer a reasonable period of grace in advance to remedy the situation. Revocation of the right of use alone does not constitute termination of the contract. After revocation, the Customer must confirm to the provider in writing that they have ceased use. The Customer has a right to the re-granting of the right of use after they have demonstrated that they have ceased the use in breach of the contract and have prevented any future use in breach of the contract.
12. License violation	A license violation, in particular exceeding the time or scope, entitles the Provider to claim double the last agreed license fee in accordance with § 87 (3) UrhG (Austrian Copyright Act). The Provider expressly reserves the right to assert further legal claims.
13. Updates, release planning and support	13.1 During the term of the contract, the Customer is entitled to updates (minor functional enhancements and bug fixes) and upgrades (functional enhancements) to the technology within the scope of his license from the Provider. The granting of rights under the contract also includes the rights to updates and upgrades provided by the Provider. The Customer shall not be entitled to a specific update or upgrade. 13.2 The Provider intends to develop the Software in at least two releases per year. The Provider shall, within the scope of its possibilities and in consultation with the Customer, ensure that the Customer's requirements for the technology are incorporated into the release planning in good time. For this purpose, a regular exchange of information between the contracting parties shall take place if possible. 13.3 The Customer shall also be entitled to technical support with regard to the use of the technology by participating in the ticketing system. The entitlement to technical support is limited to the number of Developers licensed in the PowerTSM® Developer Seats. 13.4 The provision of services for updates and support shall be carried out in accordance with the business requirements and possibilities of the Provider. 13.5 For individual software created on behalf of the Customer that is not included in the PowerTSM® product standard, an individual maintenance contract can be concluded for an additional charge.
14. SLA &amp; Support	Support, maintenance, and servicing of the technology shall be provided on the basis of the Supplementary General Terms and Conditions – Service Level Agreement (sGTC – SLA) in their currently valid version: https://terms.hakom.at/home/latest/sGTC-SLA
15. Prices and License fee	15.1 The prices quoted in the Provider's price lists are net license fees per month plus value added tax at the statutory rate. 15.2 Unless otherwise agreed, the annual license fee shall be payable annually in advance on the day of conclusion of the contract. 15.3 If the Provider grants discounts on package bookings with a fixed term, the due date for the entire package shall be the day of conclusion of the contract, unless otherwise agreed.

	15.4 Cost estimates by the Provider are non-binding. 15.5 The value protection of all prices shall be linked to the yearly increase of the collective agreement salary, class ST2, experience level published by the Fachverband Unternehmensberatung, Buchhaltung und Informationstechnologie of the Austrian Chamber of Commerce quoting the collective agreement for employees of companies in the field of services in automatic data processing and information technology. The basis of calculation is minimum salary of the collective agreement published for the month of the conclusion of the contract. The calculation basis for the above-mentioned value protection is the agreed percentual increase of the above quoted salary class. The prices will automatically be adjusted by the Provider on 01.01. of each calendar year in accordance with the changes in the collective agreement salaries.
16. Payments 	16.1 Invoices from the Provider are due for payment within 30 days. 16.2 In the event of default in payment by the Customer, the statutory default interest shall apply at the rate applicable to business transactions. Furthermore, in the event of default in payment, the Customer undertakes to reimburse the Provider for any dunning and collection expenses incurred, insofar as they are necessary for appropriate legal action. This shall in any case include the costs of two reminders of € 25.00 each as well as the standard costs of a reminder letter of a lawyer commissioned with the collection. The assertion of further rights and claims shall remain unaffected. 16.3 In the event of default in payment by the Customer, the Provider may declare all services and partial services rendered under other contracts concluded with the Customer immediately due and payable. Furthermore, the Provider shall not be obliged to provide further services until the outstanding amount has been settled. 16.4 If payment in instalments has been agreed, the Provider reserves the right to demand immediate payment of the entire outstanding debt in the event that partial amounts or ancillary claims are not paid on time (loss of maturity). 16.5 The Customer is not entitled to set off his own claims against claims of the Provider, unless his claim has been acknowledged by the Provider in writing or has been established by a court of law.
17. Term of contract; Termination; Change of contract	17.1 If no other term of contract has been expressly agreed in writing, the license contract shall be concluded for an indefinite period of time and may be terminated by either party after expiry of an agreed fixed term of contract by giving six months' written notice as of the end of the contract year. 17.2 Both parties waive their right to terminate the contract for the term of one year from conclusion of the contract. In addition, the parties may agree on minimum contract terms during which termination of the contract without important reason (cause) shall be inadmissible. 17.3 Trial subscriptions shall automatically end upon expiry of the agreed trial period with no separate notice of termination by one of the parties being necessary. Unless otherwise agreed the trial period shall be 3 months from activation/commissioning.

	17.4 Either party shall be entitled to terminate the contract for important reasons (causes). Important reasons (causes) shall include but not be limited to a situation where the other party repeatedly violates material provisions of this contract despite a written warning and having been granted a grace period of 14 days to remedy the breach of contract. 17.5 After termination of the contract all copies of the Provider's Software must be deleted within 14 days. The Customer must inform the Provider of the deletion by presenting proof of the deletion. 17.6 In the event that a Customer of the Customer continues to access the Technology, the Customer shall remain entitled, in derogation from Clause 17.5, to use the latest version of the Technology for the exclusive purpose of providing services to that Customer. There shall be no other performance by the Provider. In that event the Customer's right to use the Technology will end upon termination of the Customer's access. 17.7 Under the existing contractual relationship the Customer shall be granted the right to opt for a higher-end license monthly at the beginning of the next month; without approval from the Provider a change to a lower-end license under the existing contractual relationship shall only be possible if the agreed notice periods are observed.
18. Data protection	Data will be processed by the Provider on the basis of the Privacy Statement, which has been provided separately.
19. Liability; Warranty	19.1. The Provider assumes warranty in accordance with the statutory provisions for contracts for consideration. 19.2. Liability of the Providers and their bodies, officers, employees, contractors or other agents [translator's note: Erfüllungsgehilfe as defined in Section 1313a ABGB] ("People") shall as to the merits be limited to willful intent or gross negligence; liability for slight negligence shall be excluded. This exclusion of liability shall not apply to personal injuries or damage to property which the Providers have taken over for processing. To the extent that liability is excluded or limited this shall also apply to personal liability of their People. 19.3 The Provider shall not be liable for interruptions, failures, delays, erasures, transmission errors or memory failures that may occur in connection with use of the Technology.
20. Secrecy	20.1 The parties shall treat all information and documents which they receive from or which become known to them from, by or through the other party as strictly confidential, and at least with the same care with which they treat their own information of the same kind. Objects shall be stored and secured in a way that makes it impossible for third parties to gain knowledge about or misuse them. The obligations shall particularly apply to Software and data. They shall remain in force even after termination of the contract. 20.2 Information and documents may only be used for the purpose of performance of the contract. They may only be passed on to employees, subcontractors and experts who must know them in order to perform the contract. Upon request of the other party employees, subcontractors or experts must be put under an obligation to maintain secrecy in writing for the immediate benefit of that party and according to these rules.

	20.3 The obligation to maintain secrecy shall not apply to information and documents which are or come into the public domain with no breach of contract by the party or which the receiving party has received from third parties who are authorized to disclose them to the public. The party that relies on these exemptions shall bear the burden of proof.
21. Reference	Either party shall be entitled to make reference to the business relationship with the other party in its own advertising media, including but not limited to its website, by stating the name and business logo of the other party.
22. Applicable law	For all disputes arising out of this legal relationship the parties agree on jurisdiction of the court having jurisdiction over 1230 Vienna and over the subject matter. Austrian substantive law shall apply. The place of performance shall be Vienna.
23. Miscellaneous	23.1 If any provisions of this contract are or become ineffective in whole or in part or if there is a gap in the contract, the validity of the remaining provisions shall not be affected thereby. 23.2 Modifications of or amendments to the license contract shall be made in writing. This shall also apply to an abolishment of the formal requirement of written form. Statements or declarations sent by email or fax shall be deemed to meet the requirement of written form. 23.3 If only the masculine form is used for describing natural persons in these GLST or other contracts, it shall refer to both women and men equally. If a term is used for a specific natural person, the respective gender-specific form must be used.
